message from our ceo

We are so very grateful to supporters who have the foresight and generosity to leave a bequest to the TLC.

If we all leave a gift to the TLC in our wills we can make a huge difference to the conservation and restoration of our beautiful island for the future.

Your generous gift will make an extraordinary contribution to the preservation of irreplaceable wildlife such as eagles, devils and quolls and the forests and grasslands they inhabit, for tomorrow, just as you intend it to today.

We see a bequest as the ultimate commitment to ensuring our long-term vision for Tasmania to be a global leader in nature conservation and sustainability.

Please do something wonderful and consider leaving a bequest for the Tasmanian Land Conservancy that will live on past us all.

Jane Hutchinson
CEO

"My motivations to give to the TLC are simple. I have no children and I want to make sure places in Tasmania are protected and not destroyed. I have a strong association with Tasmania. I grew up in the central highlands and was always in the bush. Now I like mucking around in the puddles looking at lichens and mosses. I just like to know that places are protected forever for their sake."

TLC Bequests

Protecting irreplaceable sites, endangered species, habitats and rare ecosystems on private land in Tasmania.

preserving biodiversity in perpetuity

“As an artist I have chosen Tasmania as my home for the past 30 years and I hope to be here for many more. I am very concerned to preserve Tasmania’s beautiful environment for future generations so I decided to leave a bequest to the TLC.”
Chantale Delrue, 2011

Though Tasmania has a relatively high level of conservation reservation, significant elements of our biodiversity, natural ecosystems and plants and wildlife are not adequately protected.

The Tasmanian Land Conservancy is working hard to protect important places through outright land purchases, by trading land that we covenant through our revolving fund and by working with existing private landowners.

The TLC is a genuine “quiet achiever”. We have protected thousands of hectares of land in Tasmania already and will continue our mission with your help.

By leaving the TLC a gift in your will, you are making a powerful and loving pledge to the preservation of Tasmania’s natural places for years to come.

Ways to make a bequest to the TLC

The four most effective ways to leave the TLC a bequest are:

1. A residual bequest

After making provision for family and friends and any debts, you can choose to leave the residue (remainder) to the TLC. This is a simple and effective way to support our work.

2. Nominate a portion or a percentage of the estate

This allows for a portion or percentage of your estate to be granted to beneficiaries, thereby overcoming the requirement to keep your will up to date with changes in the value of your estate over time.

3. Gift of property

Specific items such as works of art, stocks and shares, antiques and land can be gifted in your will. If you wish to make a gift or bequest of land to the TLC, we recommend that you contact us first to discuss your wishes.

4. Superannuation

You may wish to leave the balance of your superannuation fund to the TLC. To do this you can direct your superannuation provider to transfer those funds to your estate and then leave a residual gift or specific bequest to the TLC from your estate in your will.

5. Life Insurance

You may wish to nominate the TLC as the beneficiary of your life insurance policy. You should contact your life insurance provider directly about this option as many policies are not distributed in accordance with a person’s will but rather to the nominated beneficiary of that particular policy.

How do I make a bequest to the TLC?

We recommend seeking professional legal advice in making your will or adding a codicil to your will to include a bequest to the TLC.

Suggested wording to make a bequest to the TLC in your will:

I GIVE (insert the details of the bequest here) free from all debts (secured and unsecured) and all duties (whether federal or state) payable in respect of my estate to the Tasmanian Land Conservancy Inc. (ABN 88 743 606 934) for its general purposes and I DECLARE that a receipt of the secretary or the treasurer for the time being of the said Tasmanian Land Conservancy Incorporated shall be a full and sufficient discharge of this bequest to my executor(s).

“I grew up in Tasmania - I had a childhood rich in outdoor experiences. Its important to me to provide the same opportunities for my children in the hope that they grow up to develop a love and respect for nature and the desire to preserve it. By establishing a family fund, I’m doing all I can to ensure that the beautiful wildlife and plants that we have here in Tasmania are protected now and for future generations”. Rosie Barry 2012

Protecting your gift The TLC Foundation

All bequests to the TLC (unless otherwise specified in your will) are held by the TLC Foundation and invested. Interest earned from the investment is used to directly fund the ongoing management of all TLC permanent reserves. No fundraising or administrative costs are taken from the TLC bequests.

In choosing to support the Tasmanian Land Conservancy’s aims, you will make a substantial contribution to nature conservation and protecting Tasmania’s important places.

We are happy to assist in answering any questions you might have regarding making a gift to the TLC in your will. Please contact our bequests officer on Ph (03) 6225 1399 to discuss your wishes or receive more information.
